It's a safe bet that President STEVENS of the C. and O. would not for a day tolerate his whistle-blowing and bell-ringing fiends in front of his home. Mr. STEVENS ought to hunt up and read that old and honorable chestnut, the Golden Rule.

THE Washington Post, in a leading editorial, discusses Secretary TAFT as a Presidential possibility—

"Mr. TAFT may be the next President of the United States. Certainly he is an eminent citizen, a great jurist, a capable statesman. It is not unlikely that the people will be looking for a man mightily like WILLIAM H. TAFT in 1908. If he should be nominated, his Tariff views will bring him hundreds of thousands of votes that ordinarily a stand-patter could not get."

AND now the Eastern Democrats are swearing by the Great Horned Spoon that BILLY BRYAN's double-action mouth is responsible for Republican success in Maine. If he hadn't shot himself off on the Government ownership of railroads, the Democrats would have carried that state. But here comes Mr. GOMPERS and says he cut down the Republican vote with his little hatchet.

A GENTLEMAN of this city was flattered by a most cordial invitation to attend the BRYAN reception in Cincinnati, being promised a seat right close up to the Peerless One. Digging down a little further into the envelope, however, he unearthed a request for $1 to help pay the expenses of the aforesaid reception—and this took all the flattery out of the proposition. He didn't go; neither did the $.

IN addition to editing the assassination syndicate in Breathitt county and the Democratic State Central Committee, Judge JAMES HARGIS of Jackson, b'gosh, has started out to edit the Editors of his town. He "read the riot act" to the Breathitt News Man, warning him "not to put his name in his paper no more." It is possible that Mr. HARGIS's censorship may be extended to all papers in the state, for no contract seems to have been too big for the illustrious Judge to tackle.

A LEADING Democrat in Washington in an interview states that he believes Mr. BRYAN is absolutely honest in his Government ownership idea, just as he was on the money question ten years ago. He adds that he believes Mr. BRYAN will stand by his utterances until he sees them beaten in the next National Convention; and he might have added that WILLIE will tumble only after he himself is snowed under by an avalanche of votes, after which he will scratch out and proclaim some other Populist tommyrot.

BESTED.

President Hadley of Yale was talking about his student days, says The Philadelphia Bulletin.

"I remember a stately and venerable Professor," he said, "upon whom some sophomores once tried to play a trick.

"The Professor, one morning, being unable to attend to his classes on account of a cold, wrote on the blackboard—

"Dr. Dash, through indisposition, is unable to attend to his classes today."

"The students erased one letter in this notice, making it read—

"Dr. Dash, through indisposition, is unable to attend his lasses today."

"But it happened, a few minutes later, that the Professor returned for a box he had forgotten. Amid a roar of laughter he detected the change in his notice, and, approaching the blackboard, calmly erased one letter in his turn.

"Now the notice read—
"Dr. Dash, through indisposition, is unable to attend to his asses today."

There was a decided change in the atmosphere last night, which came as a welcome relief from the oppressive heat endured the past week.

The "best obtainable" costs no more than the indifferent variety—in fact, it's the cheapest, for every piece is fertile seed that will yield a harvest of dollars.

BEATING PEOPLE

One of Numerous "Evangelists" Makes a "Killing" Here

There arrived in this city a few weeks ago an itinerant evangelist and his wife, whose card read—

REV. A. G. TIPPETTS,
CINCINNATI.
Bible Christian Mission, Residence,
319 West Seventh street 619 West Fourth street

After engaging the Courthouse for a lecture and stereoscopic entertainment he and his wife canvassed the city selling admission tickets for the show that night.

Having use for a guitar in the performance, he visited the music store of Mr. F. F. Gerbrich in West Second street and borrowed one for the occasion.

There being a counter free attraction of a similar character given on the Market Street Esplanade, Rev. Tippetts failed to attract a copious guard, which resulted in his not giving a performance, and in consequence he lost out and was stranded in the town.

Next morning he called on Mr. Gerbrich, told a pitiful story about his financial condition and stated that he needed the guitar in his business, and that if the gentleman would accept his note for amount that he would liquidate the obligation as soon as he could raise the money.

The instrument changed ownership on these conditions.

After waiting a month or more and not hearing from him, Mr. Gerbrich wrote the Mission House and in reply received a letter from the Lancet-Clinic Company, into whose hands the letter had fallen, in which the statement was made that the Reverend gentleman was a fraud of the first water and had left unpaid numerous bills in Cincinnati when he took his departure. The letter further stated that the "Bible Christian Mission" refers only to the one established by the Reverend gentleman himself—a small hall, for which he failed to pay the rent. While Mr. Gerbrich is somewhat poorer in purse he is richer in experience.

This same man was given a charity pass for himself and wife to Flemingsburg by Mayor Stallop.

Bible College Centennial Day will be celebrated September 27th in Louisville in the State Convention of the Christian Church. Miss Mary A. Finch of Mayslick is on the program for a paper on "The Purpose of State Bible School Work."

OLD KENTUCKY DAY

General B. W. Duke Will Speak at the Fall Festival

Friday, September 21st, the last but one of Cincinnati's great Fall Festival, has been set aside by the Board of Directors as "Daughters of the Confederacy Day." Thousands of Southern people, not only from the Southern states themselves, but from all over the North as well, are expected to be present and the day will probably be one of the biggest during the entire four weeks of the Exposition.

General Basil W. Duke of Louisville has been sent an official letter of invitation by President Otto Armleder of the Fall Festival, urging him to be present on that day, and to make an address Friday afternoon in Music Hall. It is said that he will accept. Other noted Confederates, including Colonel William Elliott of South Carolina, have also been invited and will attend the Festival on that day. Colonel Elliott is in charge of the graves on Johnson's Island in Lake Erie where 206 Confederate dead lie buried. Of these 156 were Masons. These soldiers died during imprisonment in the Johnson's Island stockade.

One of the biggest concessions at the Fall Festival was given the Daughters of Confederacy. They were provided with a huge tent in which a "Southern Luncheon" is being served during the Festival. The proceeds are to be used in putting the graves of the Confederate dead on Johnson Island in order and to erect a monument to the 206 dead. Thousands of people daily patronize this concession thereby indulging the work of these noble women.

Friday, September 21st, will also be "Kentucky Day," and Governor Beckham and his staff with other prominent Kentuckians will be extended invitations.

Yesterday a load of wheat weighing 8,000 pounds, consigned to Rains Bros., was the first heavy haul to pass over the new brick street in West Third. That part of the street from Wall to Court will be thrown open to traffic Monday.

Wednesday afternoon a charming encore was given by Mrs. Hattie Mitchell at her handsome home near Mayslick. The following Mayslick women were among the fortunate guests: Mesdames Lewis Parry, Henry Davidson, Benjamin Gasner, John Hunt; Misses Grace Anderson, Harriet Johnson, Lida and Florence Rogers. The first prize, a cut-glass bon-bon dish, was won by Miss Florence Rogers; the second, a rope of beads, recently brought from Venice by Mrs. Mitchell, was awarded Mrs. Davidson, while the third prize, a souvenir teaspoon, was Mrs. Gus Brooks's trophy.

Mrs. Lewis M. McCarthy entertained delightfully with cards Thursday afternoon in the Casino at Beechwood. Mrs. McCarthy was assisted by Mesdames Edward Geisel and Lind Hamilton. Delicious refreshments were served, after which handsome prizes were awarded Mesdames Lewis Patton, George Bruce, Clarence Wood and Edward Geisel.

Lexington's City Assessor has decided to place a tax on duplicate stocks and other property to the value of $500,000 belonging to Mrs. Julia Walsh of St. Louis, who claims she is not a resident of Lexington and legally cannot be taxed there.

The gage marks 5.6 and falling.

The Tacoma will be down today from points above.

The S. S. Brown will be ready to leave Pittsburgh October 1st.

Dam No. 2 will be the first of the Ohio river dams to be formally opened.

The Sprague is going down the Mississippi light on account of low water.

The sandbar on the opposite side of the river is showing up in large proportions.

The corps of Engineers have completed their work of surveying the Ohio river from Louisville to Cairo.

The John A. Wood and Joe B. Williams, which left Pittsburgh last month with tons of coal, have arrived at New Orleans.

The Executive Committee of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association has adopted a novel educational scheme for the promotion of the betterment of the river by the lock and dam system. The Committee has planned to have a series of photographs taken of the progress of the work and improvements which have been installed by the completion of the work on the upper river. It is figured that this method will appeal in a greater measure than other plans which have been in vogue for several years.

SPRINGDALE.

Mr. John Craycraft of Plainville, O., was here Friday.

Messrs. J. W. Tully and Louis Jenkins are visiting relatives at Hamilton, O.

Mrs. J. W. Tully and daughter, Miss Louise, were guests of relatives here Thursday.

Mr. Sam Osborne is Station Agent for the C. and O. while Mr. Thompson is absent.

Mr. Ross Thompson is taking his vacation, and with his family, will visit Washington, D. C., and other Eastern cities.

Rev. and Mrs. Russell returned from Vanceburg Wednesday and are guests of Mr. Riggins and his niece, Miss Ryan.

If those residents in Forest avenue had visited the "clump of trees" into which the "queer looking birds" descended they would, in all probability, have soon discovered the attraction as well as "species" to which the birds belonged. "Where the carcass is, the eagles will be gathered together."

How Johnnie became a hero: It was the first day of school and to Johnnie it was the very "first day." His mamma had come to the door with him. He felt very lonely when she went away. There were so many boys and girls and they were so large and strange. He only knew Helen. Directly the bell jingled and all became quiet. The teacher stood up and began to say beautiful kindly words in a musical voice. She was saying how glad she was to meet them again and how much work they were all going to do, when suddenly Johnnie screamed out, "Oh! Miss Della, there is a mouse; may I catch it?" The musical voice quickly changed to a tremulous one as she answered "Why, certainly, dear, if you can." Johnnie darted from his desk toward the corner where the intruder had retreated, he knocked over the broom, an umbrella or two, then a box of papers, then a snatch-grab and high above his head like a flash went the little hand, when thud to the floor went the dreadful creature and instantly it was in the land where all "caught mouses" go. Johnnie found himself surrounded by admiring girls and boys as he turned to go to his desk, while the teacher exclaimed, "My dear Johnnie, we welcome you indeed, for you are a hero."

Mrs. Walter Rudy of the West End, who has been quite sick, is convalescing.

Miss Gertrude Clinger has gone to Danville to take a position.

CUBAN AFFAIRS

The Insurgents Offer to Surrender to United States Authorities

The news from Cuba is somewhat exciting. Yesterday the leader of the Insurgents sent word to the different commands to quit fighting, as negotiations were pending for surrender to Commander Colwell of United States Cruiser Denver after the landing of marines in Havana.

Colwell refused to accept surrender on his own responsibility, and at once communicated with Washington as did President Palma.

President Roosevelt first ordered the marines to go aboard the Denver and then called Secretaries Taft, Bonaparte and other members of the Cabinet in conference at Oyster Bay.

The situation is serious for American interests, and intervention is desired.

The President will probably announce this Government's determination today.

STOPS ANY ITCHING.
Doan's Ointment Cures Eczema and Itching Piles. Maysville People Recommend It.

One application of Doan's Ointment stops any itching. Short treatment cures eczema, itching piles, salt rheum—any skin eruption or skin itching. It is the cheapest remedy to use, because so little of it is required to bring relief and a cure. Here is Maysville testimony to prove it:

Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville papers. I said that I had received most decided benefit from the use of this remedy, procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. For a long time I had an itching or eczema of the scalp. It broke out in spots, and sometimes the spots would appear on my forehead and temples. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain, and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence.
